RE: CLAIM NO: 015422
AMOUNT: $750.00
CASE NO: 98-02675-5-ATS

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

My investment claim began in late 1996 continuing into early 1997; with some people I met in a trailer park where we lived Albuquerque, New Mexico. The $750.00 paid to these investment people was going to be our second chance. Because I had recently been given a buy-out from my previous employer in Sacramento California. We had to give up our home to a loan company. So my wife and I moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico and started our lives over.

As our lives began to look up once again we moved out of the trailer park into a house located in Rio Rancho, NM. The investment people called me into the early part of 1997 to inform us the company was have financial problems. I was left with the impression the home office would be making contact. That was the last I ever heard.

My mother's health became very bad, so we moved back to California in September of 1997. Here we are in Greenwood, CA in the year of 2007, ten/eleven years later, and you want me to find proof of a BAD investment. I guess I lost here too.

I have been on the road on a business trip for about six weeks. When I finally opened the last hand full of mail discovering your letter of: NOTICE OF OBJECTION TO CLAIM. Dated October 26 and requesting a timely response, I didn't have enough time to respond within the 30-day request.

The "NOTICE" does not have a phone or fax number to make contact nor did it come registered.

You may call my home phone 530 - 885 - 2397

Thank you,

L. Ray Richardson
